SPECIAL LECTURE

Loraine Halis Lecture on the
Art and Science of Caregiving

Dealing with Dementia:

Adjusting to Grief & Loss

Speaker: KENNETH DOKA, PhD

Senior Consultant, The Hospice Foundation of America
Professor Emeritus, The College of New Rochelle

Experiencing a diagnosis of Alzheimer's or another dementia creates unique experiences of grief and loss for individuals and their families. While these experiences are common, they are often not talked about. Finding a path through loss is an individual and ongoing journey. Join us for this special lecture with Dr. Ken Doka - leading expert and author of over 40 books and 100 articles on this relevant topic. This event is free of charge and open to the public.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 2024 6:00 – 7:30 pm ET

5:15 pm: Open House, 360 Lexington Avenue, 3rd Floor

6:00 pm: In-person and Livestream Lecture

This lecture series is made possible by the generous support of the Halis family. The Loraine Halis Lecture on the Art and Science of Caregiving is designed to recognize caregiving as an important social, political, policy, and spiritual issue that merits thoughtful discussion and discourse.
